WHEN POLLY TAKES THE AIR.

A little wicker basket rolls
Along the pavement walk,
And at the sight the young and old
Begin to laugh and talk
And wave fair hands and kisses throw
And cry: "Look here!" "See there!"
"This way it comes!" And all because
Sweet Polly takes the air.

The newsboys run and shout with glee
And follow on behind.
The coachman and the footman gaze
As if they had a mind
To do the same. The good old priest
Stands still with solemn stare
As down the shady avenue
Sweet Polly takes the air.

And all the while sweet Polly sits
In dainty gown and hat
And smiles on one she loves the best—
Her pretty Maltese cat—
And softly coos, when pussy purrs,
Without a thought or care
How all the town turns upside down
When Polly takes the air.

VOLTS DO NOT HARM PEOPLE.

It is the Amperage That Does the Deadly Damage.

Newspaper reporters, copy readers and head writers are in need of a primary education in electricity. Every now and again the newspapers record the death of somebody from the effect of a given number of volts, or tell of another's wonderful survival after receiving the shock of many thousands volts. Strange enough, in the newspaper accounts nobody is ever killed, nor is a remarkable escape from amperage or electricity been chronicled, nor is the damage often done by a current, nor has anybody ever seen a "watts" figure in the matter. The number of volts in a current of electricity is its speed or pressure. The number of amperes is its volume. Volts without amperes would be speed without substance.

A light molecule moving with a speed or voltage of 185,000 miles per second strikes the eye without injury, but if the molecule had a weight or amperage of one two-thousandth part of a grain it would have the same effect as an cannon ball moving 1,000 feet per second. Any number of "amperes" without voltage would be a dead engine in a roundhouse.

An article in a New York paper was headed, "Net Killed by 2,000 Volts." It told of a boy who had become locally famous because "2,000 volts of electricity had passed through Joe's body without killing him." Without the amperage of the current being known the statement means nothing. Another story of escape from electricity was headed, "Shocked by 2,000 Volts."

The electrical current used in the Edison fluorescence has a minute fraction of an amperage, but an almost incalculable voltage of perhaps above 150,000. To receive these 150,000 volts in the body would feel like the prick of a needle.

At the state penitentiary the victims of the law are given about 1,800 volts of electricity, but it is the electrical energy, as expressed in watts, that kills. The amperes multiplied by the volts give the energy of the current, or watts. He who would exceed a "five wire" need care nothing for the volts or amperes it may have concealed about its person, but let him carefully calculate its wattage before he grabs hold.—New York Mail and Express.

The Public Service in China.

Ex-Secretary John W. Foster, who was the confidential adviser of the emperor of China in the peace negotiations with Japan, contributes a paper on "The Victory of Li Hung Chang" to The Century. Mr. Foster says of the victory:

It does not regard the competitive educational system of admission to the public service as a perfect method, and more than once he has recommended to his superior official modifications in the existing system. But it must be confessed that it has stood the test of centuries with much benefit to China, and its practical operation has demonstrated that it possesses two merits of inestimable value to any nation. First, it brings all the offices of the empire within the reach of the lowest subject, and, secondly, it stimulates the incentives to and opportunities of corruption and favoritism in securing entrance into official life. But in China the competitive examination ends with the admission. Beyond that step promotion must come through other methods. Li Hung Chang secured the right of admission to office through his assiduous application to study, and every succeeding step in his upward career has been attained by his own genius and capacity.

Portraits and "Pictures."

If one can give the portrait and make a picture at the same time, so much the better, but if the portrait be given with frankness and sincerity, if the model be rendered with knowledge and truth, the result will be a picture—a work of art—whether the painter so designs it or not. Holbein and Velasquez told the exact truth about their sitters, and their simpler portraits are today their better pictures, Lawrence and his followers in devoting themselves to "stunning" effects not only compromised the likeness, but made the picture bizarre by emphasis in the wrong place. The tale has been more than twice told in the history of art. A simple truth is always better than an ornate falsehood.—Scribner's.

ERIE MEDICAL CO., Buffalo, N. Y.

You've seen and heard the loud voiced man at the big railway stations, calling the trains. He tells us where each one is going and keeps people from taking wrong trains—if they pay attention.

One's physical feelings are bodily "train callings." They announce the starting of all trains of disease. Most all trains of disease lead to consumption, because consumption is a blood disorder and because the blood must be poor or impure before any disease can make much headway.

The secret of health is to keep the blood pure and full of strength. When a man or woman loses flesh and vitality, there is something wrong in the blood. The start of it is likely to be in the stomach or bowels, and if they are put in order the trouble gradually stops. Consumption is a germ disease, but if the blood is good, and keeps the lungs strong and healthy, the germs cannot find a place to lodge and are cast off. If there's a weak spot, the germ will find it. Even after that, strong and pure blood will strengthen the lungs so that they can gradually rid themselves of the germs. It is by creating strength and purity that Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures consumption and other diseases. It makes one gain flesh—no flabby, oily fat, but sound, firm, useful, healthy flesh. Hundreds of patients have testified to its wonderfully beneficial effects in many diseases and especially in incipient consumption.

A large book of 200 pages, full of testimonials with portraits and autographs of the writers, can be had by sending a cent to cover postage and wrapping only. Write to the DISPENSARY MEDICAL ASSOCIATION, Buffalo, N. Y.

FUSION OF POLITICAL PARTIES.

There are five Presidential candidates in the field, William J. Bryan, the nominee of the Democratic, Populist and Silver parties, William McKinley, the nominee of the Gold Republicans, John M. Palmer, the candidate of the Gold Democrats, and the two nominees of the Prohibitionists, who, like the Democrats and Republicans, have divided on the financial question. The Democratic and the National Silver party have the same candidates for President and Vice President. The Populists have the same candidate for President as the Democrats and Silver party, but they have a different candidate for Vice President. As a large majority of the Populists are for Bryan for President they have fused with the Democrats on Electors and State and county tickets in nearly every State in the Union, Nevada, so far, being the only exception. Why this State should be an exception, when the Silver party gave its electoral vote to Weaver, the People's party candidate, four years ago, can only be surmised. Men who were prominent in Populist councils two years ago, but now propose to act with the Silver party, attribute it to treachery on the part of the Populist leaders. However, as the Silver and the Democratic parties have pledged their Electors to vote for Watson as against Hobart, the action of the traitors in the interest of McKinley will not avail, as every sincere Bryan man knows that those Electors will do all that the Populist Electors could do for Watson, that is give him the vote of Nevada if the contest is between him and Hobart.

In nearly all the States, as stated, the Populists and Democrats have fused, but in several of the States the gold men of all parties are fusing against the silver men. In Missouri the Gold Democrats and Republicans are uniting. In Texas all the opponents of free coinage have united against Bryan. In Minnesota all the advocates of free coinage have united against McKinley, and in Michigan the same course has been pursued. In no State have the Populists fused with the Republicans, and the report that such an unholy alliance had been consummated in Texas is flatly contradicted by the Populist State Central Committee.

As the paramount issue of this campaign involves a matter of far greater importance to the people than party names or party success, it is to be hoped that party prejudices will be eliminated from the minds of the people. The fight is between the gold syndicates, trusts and monopolies, which profit by the appreciation of gold, and the people, the value of whose property, whether it be in town or country, and of the products of labor and farms has depreciated. The masses are not rallying to the standard of William Jennings Bryan, because he is the nominee of three parties, but because he advocates principles which if crystallized into legislation will restore prosperity to the country by increasing the volume of money so that the money kings of the Eastern States and Europe cannot control it. The Gold Democrats did not repudiate Bryan and nominate a ticket for the purpose of assisting McKinley because Bryan was nominated by three National conventions, but for the reason that his election means the dethronement of the money power which has directed the financial policy of the Government for a generation.

The intelligent voter knows that this is not a partisan contest for supremacy, but one between the advocates of gold monometallism and those who believe in the restoration of silver to the place assigned it as a money metal by the founders of the Republic. It is a contest in many respects like that between Jackson and the money powers, but the money powers were not as formidable in Jackson's time as they are today. Therefore all who believe in rescuing the Government from the grasp of the gold trust should, regardless of party names or past party affiliations, array themselves under the free coinage banner against the minions of Hanna and Wall street.

NEW YORK FOR BRYAN.

A private letter from W. P. St. John, late President of the Mercantile National Bank of New York and Chairman of the National Silver party convention at St. Louis, to a gentleman of this city, not only expresses confidence in the ability of the silver men to carry New York State, but says that they are going to carry it, too.

Mr. St. John received a salary of $18,000 a year as president of one of the largest national banks of the United States. He studied the financial question thoroughly and became convinced that the only way to relieve the country from the general business and industrial depression is to open the mints to silver as well as to gold. He shows by irrefutable argument that gold will flow into the country instead of out of it if silver is remonetized and that we cannot be deluged with foreign silver, as the single gold standard people pretend to believe, because there is no great quantity of silver stored anywhere in the world, except in the United States Treasury, and if foreign nations send their coins here to be minted they will lose from three to six cents on every dollar by the transaction.

Mr. St. John is confident that his State will give its electoral vote to Bryan. He is on the ground and knows the opinion that exists among the people, and which the subsidized metropolitan press does not reflect or in any way convey to the public.

TARIFF AND FREE COINAGE

The Senate of the United States has declared that there shall be no tariff legislation until silver is restored to its place as a money metal. Major McKinley is pledged against any legislation restoring silver unless foreign nations consent. There will, therefore, be no material change in the tariff laws for four years if McKinley should be elected. It is not probable, if, as the McKinley men say, England is benefited by a low tariff in the United States, as it is known that it is by the gold standard, that her law makers will agree to restore silver knowing that it will only result in a higher tariff, but also in higher prices for the wheat, cotton, corn, pork, beef and other products, which it now buys from the United States at about one-half what it formerly paid for such commodities.

REPUBLICAN HARMONY.

The Police Called to Preserve Order in a Convention.

PHILADELPHIA, September 16.—The Republican Congressional, Senatorial, Representative and County Conventions were held in this city to-day. The hardest contest in the history of the party in Philadelphia resulted. A fight between Quay and anti-Quay forces has been waged for months.

In the Sheriff's Convention, the anti-Quay or "Administration" faction won, nominating James L. Miles by 671 votes, against 349 for Alexander Chow, Jr., leader of the Quayites. There was much excitement, the police being called in to preserve order.

Fusion in New York.

BUFFALO, Sept. 16.—A committee of the People's party announce that they will support the nominees and platform of the Democratic Convention, provided they name five of the Presidential electors.

The fusion of the Populist and Democratic parties in New York State is an important result of the conference today. For active support of the ticket to be named by the Democratic State Convention, the Populists will give five representatives upon the electoral ticket and two Congressmen. The Populists assert their union with the Democracy will result in Bryan and Sewall carrying New York by a large majority.

A Woman Hangs Herself.

BUTLER, O., September 16.—Mrs. W. Q. Scott, wife of W. Q. Scott, who just returned two weeks ago from the Toledo hospital, where she has been during the summer, committed suicide by slipping out of the house of her father's residence and hanging herself to a cherry tree in the garden.

A Triple Alliance.

LONDON, September 16.—The newspapers to-day suggest a new triple alliance of Great Britain, the United States and Italy, to inaugurate Turkish reform.

TELEGRAPHIC NOTES.

The Illinois Populists endorsed Governor Altgeld yesterday. The places of three Democratic electors will be given to Populists.

Oliver W. Winthrop was found guilty in San Francisco yesterday of robbery and assault to murder James Campbell, the Hawaiian millionaire.

Albert Braes was shot and instantly killed at Placerville, California, by Charles E. Jerrett, a son of Daniel Jerrett, a merchant of that town.

The fight between the Quay and anti-Quay Republicans in Philadelphia was the hardest in the history of the city, and resulted in the defeat of Quay.

The box factory of Hobbs, Wall & Co., San Francisco, was burned yesterday. Night Watchman Ross, 85 years old, is supposed to have perished in the flames.

John Nonan was killed and Patrick Rush, John Mosola and Edwin Baldwin fatally injured in Chicago yesterday by the caving of an old brick foundation.

The Turkish troops on duty at Yildiz Palace, Constantinople, and comprising four battalions of Albanians, were forcibly disarmed in the presence of a large body of troops.

W. H. Hart and J. P. Langhorne had a lively argument which culminated in a fight in Judge Coffey's court, San Francisco. Langhorne slapped Hart's face and he was fined $100 for contempt of court.

The gold standard men on the Connecticut State Democratic Central Committee have unconditionally resigned in favor of the Bryan men. This is considered a victory for the silver men.

The chief of police of New York City is considering the advisability of arresting James J. Corbett and Robert Fitzsimmons. He considers it a violation of the law for these men to agree to fight to a finish for $10,000 a side.

Bryan addressed about 20,000 people at the fair grounds at Lexington, Kentucky. Horsemen entered the grounds carrying appropriate banners, and it took half an hour for 20,000 people to file past. Everyone tried to outdo his neighbor in yelling and cheering for Bryan.

The Connecticut Democratic State convention met at New Haven yesterday with over 800 delegates in attendance. William Kennedy was cheered to the echo when praising the Chicago platform and candidates. The convention nominated electors and James B. Sargent for Governor, S. D. Orndall for Lieutenant Governor, and H. S. Cummings for Secretary of State.

The New York Democratic State Convention met at Buffalo yesterday. Negotiations were pending for a modification of the financial plank, but Congressman Sulzer and other silverites say there must be no half-hearted endorsement of Bryan. Thomas F. Grady, Temporary Chairman, alluded to McKinley as the gold trust "mortgaged candidate," and spurned the allegation that the Chicago platform is a declaration favoring "repudiation, riot and ruin." A resolution was referred to the Committee on Platform endorsing the Chicago platform and pledging hearty and honest support to Bryan and Sewall. The convention adjourned until 10 o'clock to-day.

Gladness Comes

With a better understanding of the transient nature of the many physical ills, which vanish before proper efforts—gentle efforts—pleasant efforts—rightly directed. There is comfort in the knowledge that so many forms of sickness are not due to any actual disease, but simply to a constipated condition of the system, which the pleasant family laxative, Syrup of Figs, promptly removes. That is why it is the only remedy with millions of families, and is every where esteemed so highly by all who value good health. Its beneficial effects are due to the fact, that it is the one remedy which promotes internal cleanliness without debilitating the organs on which it acts. It is therefore all important, in order to get its beneficial effects, to note when you purchase, that you have the genuine article, which is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only and sold by all reputable druggists.

If in the enjoyment of good health, and the system is regular, laxatives or other remedies are then not needed. If afflicted with any actual disease, one may be commended to the most skillful physicians, but if in need of a laxative, one should have the best, and with the well-informed, everywhere, Syrup of Figs stands highest and is most largely used and gives most general satisfaction.

YOM KIPPUR.

A Day Established for the Inculcation of a Universal Desire to Forgive and be Forgiven.

Yom Kippur (the Day of Atonement), which began last evening at 6 o'clock, and will end at the same hour this evening, is the most sacred holiday prescribed by the Jewish Law, and those who, in the early stages of Jewish history, did not observe strictly this day, were punished with expulsion or death.

Ten days elapse between the New Year and Day of Atonement, during which Israelites are supposed to prepare themselves for expiation. Friends who have had petty quarrels must shake hands; children are expected to ask their parents' forgiveness for any sorrow they may have caused; sinners must give lavishly to the poor to show their anxiety for pardon; criminals must confess and show their readiness to submit to punishment; factions that have opposed each other or have quarreled must seek reconciliation. And in fact all differences must be settled so that all must have a clear conscience and a light heart. It was formerly a custom to select a goat and expel it from the community. This was termed driving out the scapegoat and as the ceremony proceeded everyone touched or struck it, thus transmitting their sins to the goat which conveyed them to the wilderness.

A touching ceremony on this day is the roll-call of the dead. The Cantor reads the names of those of the community who have passed away. A blessing is called down upon them, so that their names may not fall into oblivion. Friends and relatives who have left this world are thus recalled and so an hour is passed in which all, no matter what their station in life may have been, shall at least be remembered by those who know them. During this day a fast is prescribed lasting through the entire twenty-four hours and is observed even by the most reformed Hebrews.

Surely the custom is a most beautiful one and the adherents of the Jewish faith, being convinced that forgiveness has been granted, feeling assured that dead relatives and friends are still held in sweet remembrance, they realize that the world is not altogether bad and know where consolation under affliction and misfortune can be sought; they look kindly upon their fellow man and bear the trials of life like strong God-fearing men and women and use their wealth to aid their oppressed brethren.

In accordance with the usual custom the Jewish merchants closed their places of business last evening and which will remain closed until this evening.

THE SILVER TIDE SWEEPS ONWARD.

Republicans Declaring for Bryan—What a Railroad Official Says.

A Washington dispatch says the Silver party managers are daily receiving hundreds of letters showing that large numbers of silver Republicans are joining their clubs and intend to vote for Bryan. Among the number was one from L. Raven of Shawneetown, Ill. He says: "Twenty-one of the twenty-eight Republicans in the First ward of my village have cast their lot with us, and the change among the farmers is great." A letter was received from William Wilmel, silver Republican, who is engineering Senator Tillman through the coal regions of Pennsylvania. He says Senator Tillman is making great headway for the silver cause and is converting miners right and left. Senator Stewart has returned from a stumping tour of Connecticut and asserts that if the workmen are not coerced the State will go for Bryan. He declares the workmen in every part of the State are for the Chicago nominee. A railroad official visited silver headquarters today with a story that among the railroad men of Pennsylvania there was practical unanimity for the Chicago ticket. He cited as an example that out of a gang of fifty men he knew there were only two who were going to vote for McKinley. He said that thirty-eight of the fifty were Republicans and that thirty-six were going to vote for silver.

The Elleford Company.

On Monday evening next, September 21, the Elleford Company, headed by Jessie Norton, will appear at the Opera House for an engagement of one week at popular prices—10, 20 and 30 cents. Mr. Elleford's great success is due to the fact that he gives the public good plays and at prices in reach of all. Monday evening, "The Dangers of a Great City," a strong comedy drama will be given. Tuesday, "The Silver King," of the performance of September 9, 1896, the Virginia Chronicle speaks thus:

"The Elleford Dramatic Company played to another large audience last evening and scored another great success with their presentation of 'The Silver King.' The play is an absorbing drama, abounding with touching sentiment and strong situations. Its interpretation by the Elleford Company was vivid and powerful and reflected great credit upon the Company. W. J. Elleford, Miss Jessie Norton, Miss Lillian Elliot, Frank Cooley, R. Scott and little Pearl Landers were particularly strong. James Corrigan, in the part of 'Father Christmas,' renders his part with originality, and all the other members of the company acquitted themselves admirably."

School Shoes.

Tassell Brothers have a large and fine assortment of shoes for school children which parents are invited to call and inspect as they are being sold at a very low rate.

PUBLIC SPIRIT AND HARD TIMES.

A Suggestion to Business Men and Merchants.

There is no better evidence that the hard times so general have not crushed or broken the public spirit of our people than the interest taken in our State fair. The fair will open on next Monday under more promising circumstances than has attended the opening of any State fair of late years. The exhibits of live stock will be larger and better than formerly, and that indefatigable chunk of humanity, President Powning, is working with a will that brings success to provide means for entertaining the people who will attend the fair. Room in the pavilion is in demand for the display of farm produce and the exhibition of ores from our mines. The arts will be largely represented and science in its latest and best triumphs will receive practical illustration by learned and accomplished men at the pavilion during fair week.

The people of Reno, and especially the merchants, should equal the general public by their exhibits. At the pavilion there is no better way to advertise than by making a display of merchandise in the lines our merchants are engaged in offering to the public. These exhibits give to the people a real knowledge of the business and merchandise of each exhibitor that newspapers cannot give. The exhibitor and the people are practically brought face to face by the exhibit and an impression is made favorable to the exhibitor and his business that no newspaper display could make. No keen business man should be slow to advertise his business. It shows enterprise and public spirit which an intelligent public appreciate and demand in a business man.

SILVER PARTY PRIMARIES.

Where the Polls Will be Opened.

In consequence of the engine house having been engaged as a polling place by the Populists before the Silver party primaries were called, the latter will be held at the time heretofore announced, namely, from 1 to 6 o'clock p. m. Saturday, 19th instant, next door to the Journal office.

I. B. MARSHALL,
JOHN BOWMAN,
E. PETERSON,
Judges of Election.
Reno, Sept. 15.

Special Fair Train.

The Virginia & Truckee railroad will run a special Fair train, leaving Virginia at 7:20 a. m. on Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday of next week. The round trip rate from Virginia to Reno and return will be $1.50 for adults and $1 for children under 12 years of age, and from Carson $1 for adults and 75 cents for children.

The Fair train will not be run on Monday and Tuesday, because the travel on those days in previous years has been too light to meet expenses of running; but to accommodate those who wish to attend the Fair on Monday and Tuesday round trip tickets will be sold for the regular morning and evening trains, leaving Virginia Sunday, Monday and Tuesday next at $2; children under 12 years $1. Passengers from Carson will be charged one fare for round trip.

Considerable Talk But Unable to Act.

In a recent issue of the Gazette we saw that our distinguished fellow-townsmen, Capt. M. Y. B. Bronson, intended to vote this Fall as he shot in '91.

We have since learned that having failed to register in his precinct (Calif.) he will not vote at all. Now, as the Captain enjoys the distinction of figuring upon the Nation's Roll of Honor, the pension list, we respectfully suggest, from his own statement, that the Pension Department again look up those effective shot of '91.

SATIRISTS.

Twentieth Century Club.

The fall term of the Twentieth Century Club will open on Friday the 18th inst. Mrs. Kate Tupper Galpin, favorably known in Reno as an instructor, will be present and will address the club on the subject of "Woman as a Factor in Economics." The occasion being an important one and in order to give the many Reno friends of Mrs. Galpin an opportunity to hear and meet her, the club has decided to open the doors and extend a cordial invitation, not only to the ladies who are not members of the club, but to the gentlemen also. In order that certain expenses may be met the small admission of 25 cents will be charged. The meeting will take place at Clough and Crosby's hall at 3:30 in the afternoon.

A Suit Against the Bondsman.

United States District Attorney Jones has begun suit against John Chlatovich and R. D. McAfee for $10,000 each. It appears that these gentlemen were sureties on the official bond of E. B. Zabrickie, late Melter and Refiner of the Carson Mint, and suit is brought to recover money stolen by Jones and Henev, who were Zabrickie's assistants and for whose peculations his bondsman are held responsible.

Ex-Congressman J. M. Ashley of Ohio, and formerly territorial governor of Montana, died yesterday at Albia, Michigan.

Several of the business houses as well as private residences will be decorated in the shape for Fair week. Let everyone take an interest. A little bunting and a few flags cost but little and will add greatly to the appearance of the town.
